

Knowledge Assessment

This is a Practical knowledge Assessment. It consists of several open book instructions.

Description:	Familiarise and setup VSCode in your machine following https://code.visualstudio.com/docs/introvideos/basics and create, build and execute a new JavaScript file
--------------	--

Question.	Details of Question
1.	Setup VSCode following https://code.visualstudio.com/docs
2.	Review the following https://code.visualstudio.com/docs/introvideos/basics
3.	Create a new javascript file “Hello.js” <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. With your project open in Visual Studio, right-click on a folder or your project node in Solution Explorer (right pane), and choose Add &gt; New Item. ...</li><li>2. In the New File dialog box, under the General category, choose the file type that you want to add, such as JavaScript File, and then choose Open.</li></ol> Reference: https://learn.microsoft.com/en-us/visualstudio/javascript/write-and-edit-code?view=vs-2022
4.	In the source code, write the following <pre>Console.log('Hello world')</pre> Choose Run and observe the terminal output